QUARANTINE ORDERS IN FULL EFFECT IN ALLENTOWN
Places Where Men Were Wont to Gather Closed and Kept Closed Agreeable to State Order

That the delay of the authorities of the city of Allentown in ordering the closing of the public places of amusement, gambling houses, etc., in the city until Saturday night has met with the criticism of the public, was the big sensation general this morning, and was connected with the influenza situation.

All over the state the order was put in force at 3 P.M. Friday morning, according to reports. Allentown however, through some oversight is the board of health, which is to be made to go into effect until midnight Saturday. As a consequence the places affected by the state order were opened to two days ago and therefore the effect of that possible for such businesses in other cities.

In the city proper there was a good deal of indignant at this act on the part of the public as reported by telegraph from Harrisburg, where the order from the state health department was made in effect. The order be put into operation by the local authorities in all districts and held that the city was within its legal rights when it should be put into effect.

Quarantine Felt Severe.

The results of the quarantine, on which the full effects of the quarantine were felt. The last two days of operation of the theaters but the saloons and pool rooms were open and business was reported brisk.

On Wednesday morning the wholesale liquor establishments were doing business, as usual. According to reports, the saloon was immediately taken and the liquor remaining in the places closed. The order was sent out by noon and noon all closed.

The effects of the quarantine are already noticeable. Up to this point however every effort is being made to comply with the order and no special hardships are provided for their future thralds and appetites, had a good supply in stock for present consumption.

Streets Deserted Last Night.

At 11 P.M. the streets were deserted except at the Liberty Loan meetings. The streets were in the city very quiet and the prominent business houses were closed. People remaining in their homes.

The trolley cars felt the quarantine quite a bit. Traffic out of town points was practically nothing. Business was more on a quiet scale. A desolate scene presented.

It was an odd sight to visit them and see the sidewalks empty, the streets deserted. It was something that was felt and noticed.

Only those saloons which have bars in their rooms were open. They were more or less quiet. It was a quiet night in the city.

In fact got a taste of "bomby" conditions.

53 Cases Reported.

Judging from reports from all parts of the state, Allentown, in better shape than any other city. Only 53 cases were reported, and of these 20 were reported yesterday. Six deaths in the city, all cases of influenza. Since last Monday there only 3, which is encouraging.

Dr. J. Trissel, the health officer, urges the people in all districts to obey the order, and to keep away from theaters, pool rooms, and saloons.

Mayor Reisch, who is at all times on the lookout for the comfort of the people in his health, said it was a well-justified order.

City Council's Note to Public.

City Council's, acting as the Board of Health, authorized the publication of the following notice to the people of Allentown: "That all wholesale liquor dealers and saloons shall be closed as of this date, except of liquor for sale and serving of liquor in hotels, taverns, restaurants, and bars and saloons are closed.

The same order by Council repeats, that the saloons and pool rooms and all saloons and bars shall be closed. Meetings of every description are prohibited, and in addition, the Liberty Loan Meeting, which is to be a big factor in uplifting the morale of the people at home in war times."

One Violation Reported.

One violation of the health order was reported yesterday by the mayor. A man was reported to be selling liquor to a man in a saloon. The mayor ordered the saloon closed and the man fined.

The advice of the local health authorities, that it is one of the biggest factors in the Liberty Loan Campaign, is being taken into account. It is a matter of being a big factor in uplifting the morale of the people at home in war times.

Prove Rent Profiteering.

The committee named by City Council and civic organizations to investigate profiteering in this city and the surrounding country held a meeting and discussed the general subject of the problem. The report is to be adopted and presented to the public at large.

The procedure in general provides that landlords and tenants are to be invited to appear before the committee. The complaint is to be substantiated or disallowed. The complaint is found to be true or otherwise.

In attendance were: Councilman Thos. W. Wheeler, who acted as chairman; J. W. Price; Judge Y. C. and R. W. H.澄; Fernow; Mayor Liberty Bonds; and others.

An ATRACTIVE WINDOW.

The window must be better. The certainly the case of. WEAVER'S, the window must be better.
