Kiwanis, Red Cross and Motor Messenger Head Spies in Work

Kiwanis, Red Cross and Motor Messenger service yesterday took vigourous hold of certain life-saving measures in the fight against the Spanish Flu epidemic and plans are now under way by the three agencies to look after every sick and suffering resident of the city.

The Kiwanis Club, with a quota of 250 nurses, have volunteered their services to the Red Cross, which will be used to care for the sick and the Motor Messenger Service for a like purpose. The Kiwanis Club has also volunteered its officers to the Red Cross, and the Motor Messenger Service is ready to give any assistance that may be required.

The Red Cross is also giving its full support to the Motor Messenger Service and will do all in its power to assist in the work of caring for the sick.

The Kiwanis Club is also giving its full support to the Motor Messenger Service and will do all in its power to assist in the work of caring for the sick.

An appeal was made yesterday by the Kiwanis Club and the Motor Messenger Service for contributions to aid in the work of caring for the sick. The Kiwanis Club has already contributed $500 to the Red Cross, and the Motor Messenger Service has contributed $1,000 to the Red Cross.

The Kiwanis Club is also giving its full support to the Motor Messenger Service and will do all in its power to assist in the work of caring for the sick.

An appeal was made yesterday by the Kiwanis Club and the Motor Messenger Service for contributions to aid in the work of caring for the sick. The Kiwanis Club has already contributed $500 to the Red Cross, and the Motor Messenger Service has contributed $1,000 to the Red Cross.

The Kiwanis Club is also giving its full support to the Motor Messenger Service and will do all in its power to assist in the work of caring for the sick.

An appeal was made yesterday by the Kiwanis Club and the Motor Messenger Service for contributions to aid in the work of caring for the sick. The Kiwanis Club has already contributed $500 to the Red Cross, and the Motor Messenger Service has contributed $1,000 to the Red Cross.