Dear Miss Dunn,

It has been reported to me that you and Miss Donnelley and Miss Beckwith have seriously interfered with the working of our Infirmary regulations and have put the Health Department of the College and its physicians in a position that is very unfortunate and very unfair.

I should be glad if you would come to the Deanery at two o'clock today to talk over the situation with Dean Taft and me.

Very sincerely yours,

Miss Anita Dunn
Denbigh Hall.
