UNIVERSITY NOW UNDER GOVERNMENT CONTROL

Entrance Rush Exceeds All Expectations

RULES SAME AS WEST POINT AND ANNAPOLIS

Tuesday marked the opening of Princeton University under the new system of government control. All prospective candidates for admission recommended by the chairman of the physical examination.

The college is now a military camp for the States Navy and War Department. The life here will be practically the same as that led by the men in the service. The 24-hour residence of the college life will be under the military discipline. Students who live at home will be required to spend the week-ends at home.

According to Lt. Col. E. S. Pearson, representing the War Department, the college is under contract with the government to furnish board, boarders and academic instruction. There will be no authority over the members of the S. A. C.

Col. Pearson states that the men in other places upon our recommendation. In the first place the age will determine in a large measure the character of the college. Men of twenty and twenty-one will in all likelihood remain for at least three months. At the end of this period the college will offer the men's training camp, or inducted into the ranks as privates depending upon the wishes of the men. Exception will be made in the case of students who are taking courses to fit themselves for the future welfare of the nation. This is determined by the wishes of the students.

The nature of the work will be at the end of the course, to begin at the end of March, the last week of March and the last week of June.

The course of study includes the study of all military subjects, and the students will be required to take fourteen hours of study per week in addition to the regular academic work. The courses offered will be Chemistry, Mathematics, Physics, History, Economics, and others.

The students will be compelled to keep their rooms in order and perform the work formerly done by women.
