

61 New Influenza Cases Are Reported

The health department reported this morning that 61 new cases of influenza had been reported during the 18-hour period ended at 10 o'clock this morning. A total of 23,064 cases have been reported since the disease became epidemic. New pneumonia cases numbered 10, a total of 2,257.

The number of deaths due to influenza and its complications during the same period totaled 21. Eight persons died from pneumonia, 10 from influenza-pneumonia and three from influenza.