ST. FRANCIS CHURCHES GIVE SERVICES IN OPEN AIR

Catholic Masses Said in Picturesque Setting Under Spreading Oaks of Calvary Cemetery

At Episcopal Cathedral Worshippers Assemble on Lawn of Divinity School to Hear Pastors

San Franciscans went up open on the north side of the city for a day of worship last Sunday, when the members of St. Francis Church held their services in a grove of oak trees

The service was held in a picturesque setting under the spreading oaks of Calvary Cemetery.

About three hundred members of the congregation were present. The service was

At the Mission Dolores, where in a short sermon, the Rev. Father John H. Young, pastor of the First Baptist Church, reminded the congregation of the First Baptist Church's work in the community.

The Rev. John H. Young, pastor of the First Baptist Church, also spoke of the church's efforts to help those in need.