
CAMP FUNSTON FORCE REACHES ALLENTOWN

A detachment of nearly a hundred infantrymen from Camp Funston, Kansas, arrived in the city unexpectedly last evening and put up for the night in Camp Crane. The local officers had not been previously apprised of their coming and their purpose here is unknown. The men had been engaged in handling army trucks before being sent east. All were in full marching order and carried the regular arms.
