

GAUZE MASKS TO CHECK INFLUENZA—The Red Cross and other war organizations are bending every effort to provide for the urgent demand for gauze masks to help check the spread of the influenza epidemic. The mask as shown consists of a simple piece of cotton gauze which is adjusted over the victim, thus preventing the spread of the germs from the contaminated.