

MONKTON

1931/18 p. 1

The funeral of Mrs. M. W. Russell, took place from the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. J. Raymond in Bellows Falls on Saturday last. The Rev. S. H. Smith pastor of the Methodist Church officiating. Floral offerings were sent from the Ladies' Aid of Monkton and Bellows Falls, also from the Gleaners' Bible Class, Rebekah Lodge and many friends. Her husband, the Rev. M. W. Russell has returned and may be found at the parsonage where he will make his home.—Services will be resumed in the Methodist Churches November 10. No services this Sunday.—Cornelia Comstock has returned to Bristol after visiting friends in town.—Harold Ayers of Potsdam, N. Y., who has been ill with influenza, is better.—Mrs. F. H. Dean left the 24th for Wood River, Neb., where she will spend the winter with relatives.—Mrs. D. P. McEntee is visiting relatives in Bristol.—Donald Sears and Carroll Comstock, who have been in town on a ten days' furlough, have returned to Tufts College, Medford, Mass.