

The Christmas tree and exercises at the church in East Monkton was a success and much credit is due the Loyal Workers' society and the committee in charge. The church was prettily decorated with evergreens and Christmas bells also two trees filled with gifts. The recitations and singing by the school children were all well rendered and they deserve much praise. Quietly, the pastor was presented with an envelope containing a sum of money.— This week the Rev. M. W. Russell gave the people of the town a neatly printed Christmas greeting.

The theme of the pastor's sermon at the Methodist Episcopal Church Sunday morning at the Boro and East Monkton will be, "Glancing Backward." Preceding the regular discourse for a few Sundays, the pastor will speak to the children, giving "Little Folks to Little Folks."—The fourth quarterly conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church will be held in the church vestry Saturday, January 11, at two o'clock. The Rev. George K. Stetham, district superintendent, will be present.—Etta Coats of this town and Wyman Phillips of Richford were married Tuesday by the Rev. M. W. Russell at the parsonage.—Sherman Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Parker, is ill.—Miss Helen Lee went Saturday to Vergennes to pass Christmas week with her parents.—Miss Cicily Donahue of St. George and Miss Ruth Donahue, who is attending school at Castleton, are passing the holidays with their parents.—School closed Friday with Christmas exercises by the children. After the program Santa Claus distributed presents from a tree.—Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Potter of Hartford, Conn., are spending Christmas week with their daughters, Mrs. Dewey Devold and Mrs. Frank McEntee.—Alice Shepard of Vergennes is spending the week with her parents.