

MONKTON RIDGE

Harry O. Barnum, aged 88 years, died Wednesday afternoon, January 15, at his home in East Monkton following a three weeks' illness with influenza and pneumonia. Harry Orton Barnum, son of Orton Barnum, was born in Monkton July 10, 1880, and has always been a resident of this town. Mr. Barnum was held in the highest esteem by all, being a young man of fine principals, a kind neighbor and devoted to his family, giving tender care to his aged father, who has been in feeble health for several years. As a member of the Methodist Church he was always faithful in attendance and support. He is survived by his wife, who was formerly Miss Urana Stilson, and two small children, Helen and Edward; also by his father and a sister, Mrs. Dwight W. Eddy of Monkton. The bereaved family have the sympathy of all. The funeral services were held at the Methodist Church in East Monkton Saturday morning at 11 o'clock. The Rev. M. Russell of the Boro officiated. The bearers were: Charles Jewel and D. W. Eddy of this town, Ernest Stilson of New Haven, and Henry Stilson of Proctor. Burial was in the East Monkton cemetery. Among those from away to attend were: Mrs. Lucinda Williams, Mrs. Nellie Greenough and Wright Ferguson of Bristol, Ernest Stilson and family of New Haven, Henry Stilson of Proctor.—Captain and Mrs. George Russell are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Russell. Capt. Russell has recently returned from France, where he has been the past year. He has a month's furlough before going to camp in New York State.
