

GRAFTON NEWS.

Death of Little George Wilson, Jr.—Wright—Parker Wedding—List of Delegates—Surprise Shower—Baptist Church Notes.

Dr. W. M. Walker went to Scranton, Pa., Friday where he preached his farewell sermon. Sunday after a pastorate of ten years.

W. E. L. Walker and wife, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Farrar and little granddaughter, Ernestine Reynolds, autoed to Northampton, Mass., Friday.

Miss Helen Redfield of Boston has been visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Redfield.

E. A. Lawrence and family returned to Medford, Mass., Friday.

L. G. S. opened last week for the fall term. Hazel Treadwell returned to enter her senior year.

The correspondent has witnessed several strawberry blossoms the past week.

The saw mill below the village has closed until cider making time.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hubbard have returned to Maine.

Mrs. Amy Butler received a card from her son, Chester, that he was safely overseas.

ein cattle on Saturday. An early start took them there in season for the sale and they returned.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Prentiss left Monday for Waterville, Me., to attend a fair.

Miss Della Dutton has returned teacher in the grammar school which commenced on Monday. She is boarding at Marshall Currier's as she did last summer while teaching the village and when in the Forstall district.

Miss Doris Dana and Miss Marceline Anderson were pleased to have the opportunity to go to East Northfield, Mass., by auto with Miss Dorothy Prentiss whose brother, Charles, is to take her there. They planned to leave about 9:30, going to Brattleboro and call at Mt. Hermon, Northfield, where Charles has been student. The young ladies will be missed in their homes and by their friends, but are pleased to be able to have the opportunity of being enrolled at the seminary as students.

Miss Marcelene will be at Revell Hall as she has been for two years. Miss Dorothy returns to Goff Hall, accompanied by Miss Dana and Miss Catherine Porter of Langdon. He be at Revell Hall.

Mrs. James Linsley accompanied her husband on his mail trip to the center last week Tuesday and was an overnight visitor with Madam and Miss Bertha Linsley, returning with Mr. Linsley on Wednesday. At Charles Linsley's she enjoyed meeting Mrs. Putnam of Brattleboro and Miss Linsley's sister, Mrs. Emily Cole of Keene.

Miss Ruth Sayles, of Richmond, is in charge of the primary school. She is an acquaintance of Mrs. Frances Kimball and others of the family and is boarding with them.

Mrs. Fred Montgomery accompanied her friend, Miss Bertha Britton, to her home at East Alstead on Sunday evening and returned Monday morning. Her husband at Camp Wood underwent an operation last day. He is in the base hospital with a nurse who gives him good care.

Mrs. Nellie Burge came to Grafton to see her sister-in-law, Mrs. Fred Wright, on Thursday. She was en route for Claremont and Bradford, N.H. She received a telephone message from her nephew, Arthur, at North Franconia that his wife and daughter were ill and wished to come to care for them. She left on Monday morning. She expects to return to Plymouth, Mass., where they are in waiting for her.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Cowen and Mrs. J. W. Walters, west from Rutland, Vt., on Thursday and were visitors of the brother, Barton, and family and attended the land fair. They returned Sunday and on other days have been in Grafton.

Edith Colburn last Thursday at 4 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Amy Butler. It was well attended and Mrs. Colburn was well remembered. Luscious punch and cake were passed.

Walter Stowell has gone to Rutland to attend high school.

The New England lumber man, Mr. Hitchings, with his wife returned to Medford, Mass., yesterday.

Delegates elected to attend the Association at Chester Wednesday were Mrs. Etta Hall, Mrs. Agnes Palmer, P. O. Merrifield, Mrs. Amy Butler and Daniel Wright.

Little George Wilson, Jr., two years and five months old, youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson, died last week Wednesday after a brief illness. Burial took place in Charlestown Friday afternoon where prayer services were held. Sympathy is extended to the bereaved parents and little sister.

The usual party from here attended the dance at Lowell Lake Saturday evening.

The Walker covered bridge and the one at Cambridgeport have just had new cement approaches and will be appreciated by the riding public.

"Maplewood" house is closed.

Mrs. A. H. Walker is better.

Clarence Eddy was at home from B. F. H. S. for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Badger of Alstead, N. H., accompanied by Mrs. William Richardson of Bellows Falls, called at the Whitcomb residence last Thursday by auto.

Charles Holden and wife of Brattleboro were at A. H. Holden's.

Mrs. Henry Thompson returned to Chester last week.

Guests from Charlestown were entertained at J. E. Bashaw's over Sunday.

Miss Anna Eddy came home from Burlington last week.

Carey Palmer was at home from C. H. S. for the week-end.

The Valley school team is quite an improvement.

Rev. and Mrs. G. E. Congdon and cousin, Miss Rhoda Congdon, motored to Chester last Monday to meet Mrs. Wilder, returning from Rutland. While there they visited George Douglas and family. Mrs. Douglas is a cousin of Mr. Congdon.

Warner Gove went Tuesday to Mt. Hermon to attend school.

Miss Nellie Kingsbury's school at Plymouth Union commenced this week.

This is Farmers' Day at Athens Pond and a good number from here are planning to attend if the weather is favorable.

Word has been received to the effect that Sergt. Chester L. Butler, 10th Battery, Field Artillery, has arrived safely overseas.

Service at Congregational church Sunday morning, September 15.

Preaching by Rev. A. E. B. Ward of Westminster.