

Eaton Merrifield and family and Mrs. Amy Butler.

A social was enjoyed at the vestry Tuesday evening by the young people.

Several from here are attending the Gravelton fair this week.

Farmers are busy plowing their soils this week.

Mrs. Lewis Clark has gone to Boston for a few days.

R. A. Harris was entertained Sunday for dinner at the Houghton home.

W. M. Houghton of Keene was in town Tuesday.

Miss Maud Aiken has so far recovered as to be able to walk.

Mrs. Ida Burke has returned to Greenfield, Mass.

Mrs. C. Redfield was passing the week in Keene, N. H.

Mrs. Georgia Howe went Saturday to Bradford for a visit.

Mrs. H. Codrington of Londonderry is visiting at W. F. Prouty's.

A party attended the dance Saturday.

Miss Eva Hobart was at home from 10 o'clock to 12 o'clock Friday and Sunday.

The annual meeting of the Woodstock Association held in Chester last week report it was very interesting and profitable.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wilford and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilford were at Charles Williams in Westminster Sunday.

Mrs. Lewis Clark of Wakeegan, Ill., and children arrived on Miss L. M. Thayer.

Dr. W. M. Walker and family, F. O. Merrifield and wife and Mrs. Amy Butler, visited in Brattleboro, Vt., where Miss Margaret Walker took the train for W. F. College.

Prof. George Wilson gave a lecture Wednesday evening at the town hall in the interest of the Red Cross, his theme being, "The German Spy system."

Four new cement bridges are completed, two on the Valley road, one at Overbrook in the village and the other at Houghtonville.

GRAFTON NEWS.

Fifty-Eight Registered Here September 12 — Four New Cement Bridges—Personal Items.

Gen. John Barrett of Washington, D. C., arrived in town Sunday to visit his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. L. Walker came home from Northampton, Mass., Saturday.

H. S. Leonard went Monday to Newfane for a brief tour.

R. A. Harris returned home last week from Kalamazoo, Mich. Mr. Harris' friends are glad to see him back after being away over a year.

Mrs. A. H. Holden is visiting her son in Brattleboro.

H. C. Walker has a new silo.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Fairbank of South Deerfield, Mass., accompanied by Mrs. Clarence Pettengill and Mrs. Florence Thompson of Greenfield, Mass., motored here Saturday. The former spent the week-end with relatives and the latter at the Thompson home.

Ira Jeffs and wife of Saxtons River visited at A. R. Tuttle's over Sunday.

F. O. Merrifield celebrated his 52d birthday Sunday by a family dinner. Those present were Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Walker and daughters, the Misses Margaret and Mildred, F.