

GRAFTON NEWS.

Fourth Liberty Loan Campaign On—
Social October 8 at Parsonage—
Preaching at Both Churches
Sunday.

Services at the Congregational Church Sunday are as follows: Sunday school at 1:30 p. m.; preaching services at 2:30 p. m. by Rev. Mr. Bosworth of Townshend.

Phineas Clough is at home from Middlebury college for a few days to recuperate.

Mrs. Ada Barlow is at home from Boston for a few days.

Prayer meeting this evening.

Dr. W. M. Walker was in Boston the first of the week.

The young people enjoyed a social in the vestry Tuesday evening.

Mrs. W. E. Prouty and children saw an airplane Monday night in the northeast.

Tuesday, October 1, was an ideal day.

L. H. Phillips' nice driving horse was badly bruised while in a runaway accident last week, being driven by Solor Kendall.

George Reed has started his m. on Kladder hill.

Leland Wright began working at the Robertson Paper Co. in Bellows Falls Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Chase of Weston, Mass., have been passing a week at their cabin. Mr. Chase returned Monday and Mrs. Chase is stopping for a few days with Mrs. Minnie Hobert.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Clark, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. L. M. Clark, have returned to Waukegan, Ill., where Mrs. Clark will spend the winter.

Mr. V. A. Whitcomb is gradually improving.

John John Barrell of Washington, D. C., was at the red home for the weekend. Monday he accompanied his mother, Mrs. Caroline Barrell, and a grandchild, Miss Mann, to her home in Freeport, Ill.

Rev. G. E. Condon will take for his text Sunday morning, "This Is Your Life."

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Turner received word last week that their little granddaughter, Audrey LaNeir, 11 years old, of Dorchester, Mass., was dead, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester LaNeir. The funeral was Wednesday, September 25.

Gary Palmer is at home from Chester high school.

Prof. and Mrs. Charles Combs are at home from Chester, the school being closed for two weeks on account of the Spanish influenza.

Mrs. John Grant of this place, and Mrs. David Carlson of Athens attended the funeral of their little niece last week in Dorchester, Mass.

The foliage is pronounced to be picturesque.

Tuesday evening, October 8, a social of the World Wide Guild will be held at the Baptist parsonage. It is expected speakers from away will be present.

Prof. and Mrs. Charles Combs are at home from Chester, the school being closed for two weeks on account of the Spanish influenza.