

GRAFTON NEWS.

Death of Mrs. Marcus Chase—New Arrivals—Grafton Is Over the Top—Beautiful Fall Weather.

The local churches and schools are closed indefinitely.

Beatrice Prouty has been quite sick with Spanish influenza, but is called better at this writing. This is the only case thus far.

Prof. George Wilson has returned to Green Hollow.

Walter Stowell is at home from Rutland.

Mrs. Fanny Shelley is able to be braiding rugs. Her friends rejoice with her.

George Wilson has lost his cow.

Homer Nourse of Saxtons River has been visiting relatives in town.

D. J. Hitchcock of Athens was at the Whitecomb residence Sunday.

Miss Nellie Kingsbury is at home from her school in Plymouth Union.

A little daughter was born Friday to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haley.

Leif Lawrence was at home from Westminster from Friday until Sunday.

Warner Gove is ill with pneumonia at Mr. Hermon's.

Miss Eva Hoberl of Washington, D. C., and friend, Miss Cook, of Kenilworth are visiting her mother.

Miss P. S. Hall is visiting at Maple Grove in Saxtons River.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Lawrence of Medford, Mass., were called here Sunday by the illness and death of her sister, Mrs. Marcus Chase.

Charles Wright and family expect to leave for Manatee, Florida, the last of this week or the first of next, where they will spend the winter. Mrs. Hannah Adams will accompany them. They have the best wishes of all.

R. Ernest Reynolds and family of Northampton, Mass., were at W. E. L. Walker's Sunday, returning Monday morning. Ernestine remained with her grandparents.

Miss Hazel Traskwell was at home from L. G. S. for the week-end.

A nurse is in attendance at the Whitecomb residence.

Mrs. F. L. Gilbert and children are over from Chester passing a week with friends.

Mrs. Antonie Bashaw of Montreal is visiting at J. R. Bashaw's.

Clarence Eddy is at home from R. T. H. S.

Miss Carlotta Lawrence is at home from her school in Westminster indefinitely.

Mrs. George Wilson is ill and under the doctor's care at Mrs. J. B. Bashaw's.

Miss Priscilla Gove has returned home from Boston.

It is expected that Norman Wright is on his way to France.

The town of Grafton has already gone over its quota.

W. M. Houghton of Keene was in town Monday.

Miss Rhoda Congdon has returned to East Wallingford.

M. C. Redfield returned to Laconia, N. H., Friday for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wellman of Brookline were at Oliver Lawrence's Sunday.

Autumn leaves are fast falling which unfolds sadness to many.