

GRAFTON NEWS.

Plans Being Made For Lumber Cutting—Other Items of Interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Grover, of Keene were entertained at the Cedars Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Wilbur and son, Everett, also A. A. Wilbur motored to South Londonderry and Winhall Sunday.

Leon Redfield and wife of Keene were at M. C. Redfield's the first of the week.

Miss Margaret Walker will return to Wells College Friday.

George Reed went to his home in Keene Wednesday. During his absence the other manager, Mr. Cressler, of Keene, will superintend the mill work on Kidder hill.

Master Walter Lynne Walker of Saxtons River is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. L. Walker.

Jim Prouty has bought the Covey place below the village and taken possession.

Albert Putnam of Fitchburg, Mass., recently made a brief visit at G. W. Adams'.

Mrs. Nellie Stowell is suffering from a broken ankle.