

GRAFTON NEWS.

Results of Town Meeting—Quarantine Off—Personal Items.

The board of civil authority held a meeting at the town clerk's office Saturday evening.

Miss Jessie Fields of Troy, N. Y., is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. F. Prouty.

Frank Sparks and son returned to New Haven, Conn., Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Holden visited in Brattleboro and Greenfield, Mass., last week, returning home Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Daniels, has closed Cabot Lodge and returned to Chicago.

'Green Hollow' is also closed for the winter, the Wilson family having returned to Cambridge, Mass.

Miss Phoebe Walker is working at Zeno's Bakery in Bellows Falls.

Bar Lawrence was at home from Westminster Sunday.

George Hobert has returned home from Nayatt Point, R. I., where he passed a week.

H. E. Wilbur has rented his place in the village to H. A. Farnsworth for the winter.

~~Brookside is closed today.~~ Dr. W. M. Walker and family motored to Orange, Mass., where he is engaged to preach Sunday, proceeding on from there to Scanton, Pa.

Mrs. Nellie Stowell is improving.

George Reed has received word that his son in France was badly wounded September 26, while in action and is in a base hospital.

Mrs. Helen Hamilton went to Brattleboro today, where she will spend the winter.

Miss E. S. Hall has returned home from Saxtons River.

Open deer season will be in Monday and hunters will get busy.

Monday all kinds of weather is available, it rained, snowed, etc.

Mrs. Florence Walker and Mr. Morrison of Saxtons River were at W. E. L. Walker's Sunday. Walter Lyne returned home with them.

The board of health thinks best to lift the quarantine and resume church services Sunday, also the schools will re-open Monday.

Fred Lawrence and family of Townshend were at Oliver Lawrence's and Ed Perkins' Sunday.

Miss Blanche Marsy is staying with Mrs. Susan Sparks for the winter.

Tuesday being election day, Henry Stowell won out for town representative.