

GRAFTON NEWS.

Death of Mrs. Mya Marsh—Death of Mrs. Guy Stoddard—Open Deer Season On — Community Club Meet.

The Woman's Association of the Baptist church will hold their annual business meeting and election of officers Wednesday afternoon, November 26, at the Grafton home with Mrs. M. A. Walker.

Quite a few from here attended the funeral of Mrs. Mya Marsh in Danburyville, Sunday.

H. V. Wilbur, M. A. Wilbur and Warren Sherwin returned to Greenfield, Mass., last week, Wednesday.

H. H. Eddy was at home for the week-end from his work in Bellows Falls and joined the hunters the first of the week.

"Brookside" was closed Tuesday for the winter.

Chas. Palmer returned to his school in Chester this week.

M. A. Walker is recovering from a severe cold.

Mrs. W. E. L. Walker has been bothered with a hard cold.

D. K. Zeller was in Springfield, Vt., Friday.

H. A. Farnsworth and Avery Hall are hunting at Mt. Tabor.

Farmers in this vicinity have been busy the past ten days, having their threshing done.

F. V. Wilbur has purchased a heavy pair of work horses, this pair of from Greenfield, Mass.

Jim Fields of Townshend is plowing two weeks with his sisters, Mrs. W. E. Dooly and Mrs. Fred Keller.

Miss Phoebe Walker was at home from Bellows Falls over Sunday.

C. C. Culver is away on a winter circuit.

A meeting was held in Danbury Monday evening for the Laymen's Drive in Baptist churches. Those attending from here were Rev. G. E. Coulter and Mrs. Abbie Palmer.

W. Tompler has been quite sick and under the doctor's care.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Dolan of New Britain, Conn., are visiting at W. E. Dooly's.

F. V. Wilbur and family, also Mrs. A. B. Culver, enjoyed an auto ride Saturday to Greenfield, Mass., and returned accompanied by Mrs. E. L. Culver and mother, Mrs. Randall.

The grammar teacher, Miss Marion Brown, of Granville, N. Y., returned Saturday to resume her school duties Monday.

Walter Tuttle and family of Saxtons River have been visiting town since Saturday.

Word has been received that Guy Prawn has been across the water and is safely back again and is probably on another voyage at this writing.

Several from here attended the funeral of Mrs. Guy Stoddard in Saxtons River Tuesday. Mrs. Stoddard was formerly Miss Mildred Parker of this place.

Many hunters reached their place of destination Sunday afternoon ready to commence the open deer season Monday morning. Others were heard go off bright and early, some by auto, others by quadrupeds and some on foot. Guns were heard Sunday night undoubtedly preparatory to the excitement of the week. The first deer brought down was by the worthy woman, Mrs. J. R. Bashaw. Since two have both reported, Ray Blood and Mrs. Julius Grover.

The Community club will meet tomorrow afternoon, Friday, at 3 o'clock with Mrs. Clara Treadwell. It is hoped as many as possible will be present.

Grafton was right on deck in showing patriotism in helping to declare peace.