

GRAFTON NEWS.

Miss S. E. Daniels went to New York city last Thursday where she will spend the winter.

Mrs. Amy Butler went Tuesday to Vineland, N. J., where she expects to spend the winter with her son, Arthur.

County Road Commissioner David Perry of Brattleboro was in town Monday.

A. Pressler returned to Keene Sunday.

Mrs. M. F. Walker went last week to Springfield, Mass., where she will spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Farrar.

W. F. Dompier is reported not so well.

Mrs. Elva Gilbert returned to Chester Sunday.

H. H. Burlingame has been in town since Thursday.

M. A. Walker and wife went the first of the week to Pawtucket, R. I., for an indefinite stay.

F. V. Wilbur and family, also H. E. Wilbur was in Townshend Sunday.

Mrs. Julia Sherwin has finished work at the Duncan home and gone to Wilburham, Mass.

Mrs. Rollin Watrous entertained an auto party from over the mountain Saturday night and Sunday.

Miss F. S. Hall is visiting in Saxtons River.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Merrifield went yesterday to Randolph to spend Thanksgiving with their daughter, Mrs. Mark Morse.

Mrs. C. M. Reed has closed her house and gone to Cambridgeport to spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. Charles Perham.

DeWitt Culver and wife of Ogdensburg, N. Y., visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wright, over Sunday.

Mrs. Ida Blake was at A. H. Holden's from Sunday until Tuesday, when she returned to Greenfield, Mass.

Lewis Gordon has been passing a week in Winchendon, Mass.

The young people of the Baptist church enjoyed a social Tuesday evening at the vestry.

The regular prayer meeting this evening will be omitted.

J. S. Wyman's housekeeper, Mrs. Cady, has finished work for him and gone to Acton Hill where she is acting as housekeeper for Collis Porter.

George Hakey was the seventh lucky deer hunter in this locality.

A large flock of wild geese was seen taking leave last Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Dompier received word last week that their son, Francis, who has been in France the past year, was killed in action October 21. Much sympathy is expressed for the bereaved family.

Thanksgiving services in the Baptist church Sunday morning were well attended and well received.