

GRAFTON NEWS.

Grange Officers Elected—Christmas Exercises Tuesday Evening—Personal Items.

James Duncan of New York arrived last week Wednesday evening being called by the illness of his sister. He returned Monday.

Mrs. George Adams has been suffering from a hard cold and was under the doctor's care the past week, but is improving at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. L. Walker returned home from Northampton Mass., Monday.

W. M. Houghton of Keene was in town the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Jeffs of Saxtons River were at A. R. Tuttle's from Friday until Monday.

Miss Ella Wright is doing housework at Miss F. S. Hall's.

Misses Marian Brown and Anna Finlam were in Bellows Falls Saturday.

L. A. Walker finished work in Bellows Falls Saturday.

The Baptist and Congregational societies will each enjoy a Christmas tree and exercises Tuesday evening in the vestry and chapel respectively.

Phineas Clough is with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Clough.

F. V. Wilbur, N. R. Davis and E. A. Palmer were called to Bellows Falls Tuesday on business.

The following Grange officers were elected December 13: Master, George M. Hobert; overseer, Arthur Earl Wright; lecturer, Mrs. Clara Treadwell; steward, Mr. Hakey; assistant steward, Mr. Dompier; chaplain, G. E. Congdon; treasurer, John W. Davis; secretary, Emma Parker Wright; gatekeeper, Frank Stebbins; Ceres, Mrs. F. E. Aiken; Flora, Mrs. G. E. Congdon; Pomona, Mrs. Curtis Tuttle; assistant steward, Mrs. Dompier.

So many remarks were made about the teachers of 1916 entertaining at the school house, that a reader of the Times wishes to announce that the entertaining is still continued by the 1918 teachers.—Contributed.

The Community club will meet with Mrs. N. R. Davis Friday, December 20, at 3 o'clock. A full attendance is desired as business of importance is to come before the meeting.