

GRAFTON NEWS.

Death of Kili Redfield—Death of Miss Bernice Cobb—Quarantine W.

Turned home from Pawtucket, R. I., turned home from Pawtucket, R. I.

Clifford Woodward of Bellows Falls, formerly of this place, who has been seriously ill with influenza, followed by pneumonia, is considered out of danger at this writing, and hopes are entertained for his recovery. A. B. Oliver is there assisting the family.

The annual meeting of the Congregational Society will adjourn until February 1, on account of the quarantine.

Mrs. Amy Butler has heard from her son, Chester, who is in France, saying he is all right and anxious to get home again.

There are many cases of influenza and whooping cough. They seem to be traveling fast.

Lee Jackson from Saxtons River recently spent a day with his sister, Mrs. Cecil Fisher.

Representative J. H. Stowell went to Montpelier Tuesday.

Carl Trout is sick with the influenza.

Miss Alice Damon is slightly better.

Miss Bernice Cobb, who has been critically ill with plural pneumonia, died early Tuesday afternoon. Further particulars next week. The funeral will be held today at 1 p. m., at the house.

The village schools, also the Pettengill school are closed for the week.

L. H. Phillips is as comfortable as can be expected, and reported to be doing well.

Arthur Butler, who has charge of the poultry department at the training school in Vineland, N. J. He returned Saturday.

Mrs. A. R. Tuttle is improving.

The mill on Kidder Hill has shut down for repairs. George Reed returned to Keene yesterday.

Leland Wright and wife are influenza victims and both children have the whooping cough.

Miss Marian Brown returned to her home in Granville, N. Y., Tuesday.

Lewis Jackson has returned from France and is now at Newport, Va.

Miss Rose Jackson, who is attending school at Ludlow, recently spent a week with her sister, Mrs. Cecil Fisher.

Walter Stowell returned to Rutland last week, where he is attending school.

The remains of Kili Redfield, born March, 1895, who has been serving his country in the navy since last spring, who died in Brooklyn hospital Brooklyn, N. Y., last week of influenza, and plura pneumonia, were brought here Friday noon. Funeral services were held at 11 a. m. Saturday at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Redfield, Rev. H. J. Sweet, of Bellows Falls, officiating. F. O. Merrifield sang. Interment was in Saxtons River cemetery beside his mother.