

GRAFTON NEWS.

Death of Clifford G. Woodard—Quarantine Off — Baptist Annual Meeting, Roll Call and Dinner February 1—Items of Interest.

E. C. Clark, of Bellows Falls, was in town the first of the week.

Dr. L. W. Clough was in Boston last week from Wednesday until Saturday.

The village schools opened Monday after being closed two weeks.

F. V. Wilbur made a business trip to Camp Devens the first of the week.

Miss Hannah Gove went to Springfield Saturday for a few days' stay.

Mrs. Carl Prouty was sick the first of the week.

Mrs. L. A. Walker is gaining slowly.

C. C. Culver has returned from a week's visit in Bellows Falls and Putney.

L. H. Phillips was able to be out riding Tuesday afternoon.

A. B. Culver returned home from Bellows Falls Tuesday.

Miss Marian Brown returned from Granville, N. Y., Saturday evening to resume her school duties.

Representative J. H. Stowell was at home from Montpelier for the week-end. He returned Monday, accompanied by Mrs. Stowell.

Mrs. George Wilson is taking treatment in Bellows Falls.

Warner Gove is working at the car barn in Gageville.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Holden have received word from their son, Will, who has been in France, that he landed in New York Saturday all right. He left Tuesday for some camp in Kansas city, where he expects to be for a month or six weeks.

The drive was on last week for the Armenians, of which F. O. Merrifield is chairman, and closes this week. Any wishing to contribute will please do so before Saturday night.

A. B. Culver returned home from Bellows Falls Tuesday. Mrs. Culver remained with her daughter for a few days. Mrs. C. G. Woodard.

Choppers are busy on the Blodgett lot, where lodging and dining cabins have been erected. Austin & Sutherland have sent the mill and it is reported that it has arrived at Bellows Falls.