

GRAFTON NEWS.

Baptist Annual Roll Call and Dinner Saturday—Personal Items.

Schools in town are closed today and tomorrow as there is a teachers' convention being held in Bellows Falls.

C. C. Culver has gone away on a business trip.

Austin & Sutherland's mill arrived at its destination Monday.

Lloyd Martin of Chester was in town Sunday.

Walter Tuttle has rented Mrs. Hannah Adams' tenement.

Mrs. L. A. Walker is able to be out again.

Martin Fisher is a victim of the distemper.

Erastus Randlett returned Monday to the Old Soldiers Home in Burlington.

The annual business meeting of the Congregational church, which was obliged to be postponed, will be held Saturday at 2 p. m. in the chapel.

Letters from Herman Wright and Edwin Culver, who are in France, were received Monday, stating they were both O. K.

Representative J. H. Stowell and wife spent the week-end with Mrs. Mark Morse in Randolph.