

Monkton.

The funeral of Mrs E M Russell, wife of Rev M W Russell of this town, was attended from the home of her daughter, Mrs M J Raymond, in Bellows Falls, on Saturday. Rev S H Smith, pastor of the Methodist church officiated. Interment was in that town. Mrs Russell had been in feeble health the past year from the effects of a severe attack of the grip. They went to Bellows Falls for a two weeks' vacation, and she seemed to be improving when he returned to his work here, but a few days later she passed away. Floral offerings were sent from the Ladies' Aid of this town and by many friends. She was a devoted christian woman and won many friends on every charge where they were located. A large circle of friends extend their sympathy to the bereaved husband and daughter. Mr. Russell is living at the parsonage, and will be cared for his church people.

Mrs F H Dean has gone to Wood River, Neb. to pass the winter with relatives. Mrs Etta Coats has the care of her home while she is absent.

All signs point to a scarcity of heavy rubber goods for this winter. Buy no more than you need, but get your size now. E J Bristol's Estate, Bristol.—ad.

Donald Sears and Carroll Comstock, who have been home convalescing, have returned to Tuft's college.

Preaching services Sunday, Nov. 10, at the Methodist churches.

Mrs Delia Dean will pass the winter at the home of her brother, Alson Collins.

Mrs L E Meech is very poorly.

Cicely Donahue is teaching in St. George and Ruth Donahue has resumed her studies in Poultney.

F C McEntee and family visited in Ferrisburg on Sunday.