

Monkton.

The schools and churches are closed again until the epidemic subsides.

Mrs Ella Coats of this town and Wynan Phillips of Richford, who were married Dec 24th, have returned from their wedding trip and will make visits here.

Representative E H Palmer and wife left Tuesday for Montpelier to attend the session of legislature. G B Smith will attend his home business while they are gone.

The many friends of Charles Weisenback, who was killed in action Sept. 15 in France, were pained to hear the sad news. He was a fine young man, of a pleasant disposition and a favorite with his associates. The family have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement. He leaves one brother and four sisters, besides his parents.

James Ryan, wife and daughter of Brandon were visitors at the home of her parents, Lewis Begor and wife last week.

Influenza has caused several homes in the Boro to be quarantined. Most of them are light cases and are doing well. The last quarantine is at D E Meech's, Mr Meech and Mrs Ayres are both ill.

Mrs Burt Whitmore, formerly Miss Anna Dart of this town, died in Burlington recently. She was the youngest daughter of the late Orvill Dart. Her husband died just a week before her, both of pneumonia following influenza. They leave three children, the youngest nine days old. She leaves an aged mother, one sister and one brother.

Three in the family of Burt Parker are ill with influenza. A son of Fred Parker is also ill.