

Monkton

Sunday afternoon, Jan 19, in the Epworth League chapel at Barnumtown, were held the memorial service for Charles Weisenbach, who was killed in action somewhere in France, Sept 15, 1918. Rev F M Hagadorn of North Ferrisburgh officiated, assisted by Rev J E Ransom of this town. The chapel choir sang three selections, "Out of the Shadow land," "No Night There" and "When the Pearly Gates Unfold." Mrs J Dwire presided at the organ. The church was filled with sorrowing relatives and friends, who came to extend their deep sympathy to the bereaved family. The discourse was a fitting tribute to the memory of Charles, and will long be remembered by those hearing it.

Mrs S M Alger has received word of the death of her uncle, Henry Ross, of Huntington.

Donald Sears assisted with the work at the store last week.

Richard Partch, who cut his foot with an axe, is much improved.

Captain and Mrs George Russell are visiting his parents, Albert P Russell and wife. Captain Russell has recently returned from France where he had been the past year. He has a month's furlough.

Brainard Comstock Ladd and family have moved here from Burlington and will carry on the Ladd farm. He is now getting out lumber to build a large barn on the premises. He has also rented the Delia Dean farm and use of the barn.

The auditors will be busy next week looking over the town's business.

Mrs Carrie Comstock has come here from Burlington and will make her home with her brother and family, B C Ladd.