

"NO ADMITTANCE" TO PEMBROKE

Pembroke West boasts a maid who rigidly enforces the quarantine rule forbidding outsiders to enter the hall. In one case, however, her efforts were unsuccessful. Last week she attempted grimly to turn away an aunt who called to see her niece. The "outsider" was the President of the College.

President Thomas's reception to the Freshmen will be at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the Deanery.

1922 has appointed a song committee as follows: M. Krech, chairman, E. Anderson, F. Bliss, E. Hobdy, A. Nicoll, E. Hall, C. Skinner, P. Smith, M. Wilcox.

M. Canby '20 has been elected to the Maids' Committee of the C. A. in place of H. Ferris, who resigned on account of merits.

Tutoring classes in French under the new plan are beginning this week. The four French Scholars will each take three or four of the classes to assist Miss Duncan, Instructor in French.

Five of the non-resident Freshmen, admitted because they have undergone the ordeal of influenza, are attending college lectures this week for the first time. They are: E. Bennett, M. Glasner, M. Meng, D. Stevenson, and S. Thurlow.
