

FRESHMEN RANK HIGH IN HEALTH

Statistics of 1922, compiled by the College, show 97 per cent of the class to enjoy habitual good health. The statistics are:

Health of Freshmen

Good health, with nothing to be careful about	65
Good health, but must be careful about colds	16
Good health, but must be careful about getting fatigued	7
Good health, but must be careful about eye trouble	3
Good health, but must be careful about indigestion	3
Good health, but must be careful about losing weight	1
Good health, but must be careful about nerves	1
Good health, but must be careful about heart trouble	1
Fair health, but must be careful about colds and weak back	1
Fair health, but must be careful about using lame leg	1
Poor health, but must be careful about colds and getting fatigued ..	1