OBITUARY.

John Greenough, aged 81, who has been in failing health for some time and a great sufferer from the effect of a cancer, died Saturday, Sept. 14, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Lewis Begor, where he had made his home the last three years. A prayer service was held from the house Monday afternoon at two o'clock. The Rev. M. W. Russell, pastor of the Methodist church, officiated. The bearers were his son-in-law and two grandsons. He leaves two sons, Joseph of Worcester, Mass., and Goodsell of Salisbury; one daughter, Mrs. L. M. Begor, who cared for him; one sister, Mrs. L. Chevalier of Montreal; and several grandchildren and great-grandchildren. The burial was in the family lot in Greenwood cemetery in Bristol. There were beautiful flowers sent from Mrs. Martin of Worcester, Mass., Mrs. Noyes of Salisbury, Mr. and Mrs. Greenough and Mrs. T. C. Varney of Bristol. Those from away were Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Starts and daughter of Bridport, Mrs. Richard Lewis and son of Whiting, C. E. Noyes of Salisbury, Mrs. Frank Greenough, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Sears of Bristol, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Greenough of Salisbury.
