

from the Goss house on Water street to the Dalrymple block on the same street. Dr. D. J. Carroll.—adv.

EAST FERRISBURG

John DeCoursey attended the funeral of a relative in Shelburne last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Clark entertained Mr. and Mrs. Howard Leech and little Marion and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Peck last Thursday.

Mrs. R. Bisbee is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Carrier visited Mrs. Currier's mother, Mrs. Hattie Stone, last Sunday.

Dental Notice.

Persons requiring the services of a dentist are invited to call on Dr. J. B. Wells, in the office of Dr. C. H. Cole. Office hours, 8.30 to 12, 1 to 4.30. Evenings by appointment. Telephone 33-3.—adv.

NORTH FERRISBURG.

Garrette Crowley and family were in Shelburne Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mr. Crowley's brother.

Mrs. Rhoda Kingsland celebrated her birthday September 28, with a family dinner party.

Mrs. Charles Wheeler has gone to Chicago for a visit.

An auction was held at the Webb homestead Monday.

Jamie Dean has moved into the house opposite M. F. Allen's.

Mrs. T. B. Allen went to Burlington for the winter this week.

Many from this town attended the funeral of Miss Mary Quinlan Saturday.

Articles given to the Belgians were packed at Preston's store Monday.

At the Red Cross meeting this week, officers will be elected.

MONKTON RIDGE.

Frank Meader is some better.

Mrs. Charles Hoag has returned from Burlington, where she has been staying the past month.

John Thomas motored to Burlington last Saturday.

R. D. Tracy and J. W. Thomas were in Bristol on business Friday of last week.

J. E. Ramsom has returned home from a trip in New York state.

John Butler is putting up J. W. Thomas's silo.

C. H. Farr was in Burlington Friday.

Gasoline Engines.

We carry a large stock of Gasoline Engines, and a competent man to install them. Prices low. Strong Hardware company, Burlington, Vt.—adv.