

MONKTON.

OBITUARY.

Malcolm Parent died Saturday night, Oct. 5, at St. Elizabeth's hospital, Brighton, Mass., after a short illness of Spanish influenza, followed by double pneumonia.

Malcolm William Parent was born in Monkton March 23, 1897, the son of the late Frank Parent. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Catherine Parent Comstock; one sister, Florence, and a brother, John A. Parent, who is somewhere in France.

Aug 15, 1918, he enlisted for Tufts college training detachment, along with 14 other Addison county boys. He made good in his work as well as with his fellow men. He had the promise of an officers training school course at the end of that course.

The funeral services were held from St. Peter's church, today of which he was a member.
