

MONKTON.

The service in memory of Charles Weisenbach was largely attended Sunday afternoon in Epworth League chapel. The Rev. F. M. Hagadorn of North Ferrisburg officiated, assisted by the Rev. J. E. Ransome, of the Friends' church. Four selections were rendered by the choir with Mrs. Joseph Dwire at the organ. Mrs. L. L. Dwire and Mrs. James Dwire sang "He Knows It All." The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved parents. Among those from away to attend the service were Mr. and Mrs. Martin Pilger and family of Waltham, M. C. Peck of New Haven and E. A. Preston of North Ferrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Peck of New Haven, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Stone on Sunday.

Mrs. Frank McEntee was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Dewey Devold, last week.

The Helping Hand society of the Barnumtown Epworth League chapel met on Thursday with Mrs. George La Flame.

C. H. Sears was a business visitor in Burlington on Friday.

Mrs. S. M. Alger has received word of the death of her uncle, Henry Ross, of Huntington.

Miss Gladys Brown, who has been a guest of her brother, Earl Brown, has returned to her home in Middlebury.

John Carpenter and daughter, Mrs. Alger, attended the funeral of their brother-in-law and uncle, Henry Ross, in Huntington Monday.

Howard Devold, who has been ill with influenza, is improving.