

QUARANTINE NOT RAISED BUT NO MORE FLU CASES

Thursday last the authorities decided to lift the quarantine so far as Gunnison county was concerned. Friday it was announced by the papers that schools, churches and public gatherings might occur. On Saturday the recurrence of the dread epidemic in other cities of Colorado where the quarantine had been lifted led our town and county to clamp on the lid again.

There have been no more cases appearing in the county this week, and only one death from this cause.

So far we are wonderfully free from the disease. It is probable the schools will not open till after the Christmas holidays. Then it is hoped the wave of death will have subsided thru the West.

TERRIBLE EPIDEMIC STILL TAKES TOLL. CHARLEY HAZELHURST DIES THIS MORNING.

Mrs. Laurel Spann Succumbs to Effects. Bud Shores Passes Away at Grand Junction. Roe Allison Was Pioneer of Western Slope.

Charley Hazelhurst

A telegram just received brings to Gunnison the sad news that Charles Hazelhurst died this morning at Greeley, where he was a member of the S. A. T. C.

Charlie was only 18 or 19 years old, and has a host of relatives and friends who were shocked to hear of his untimely death. His parents received word last Saturday that he had the Flu, and went over to Greeley Sunday to attend him. During the last few days, reports of him were so favorable that everyone had great hopes of his recovery.

The body will be brought home for burial. Arrangements for the funeral have not been made at this writing.

Mrs. Laurel Spann

After an illness of several weeks, Mrs. Laurel Spann died at Jack's Cabin Tuesday morning at 8:30 o'clock. Contracting the influenza about three weeks ago, she was at this time supposed to be getting better—in fact, she felt better at 8 o'clock that morning than she had for several days. But the treacherous Flu had affected her heart, and she died very suddenly.

The funeral was held at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon, with Rev. Bissell of the Episcopal Church officiating. Because of the quarantine the funeral was strictly private, with only the immediate relatives and a few close friends present.

Nan Comstock was born in Baldwin, May 26, 1888. She was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Comstock. She had two brothers, Harry, who is now in Central America, and Anthony, who is with the colors in France.

When she was yet a baby, the family moved to Jack's Cabin, where she grew up and went to school. Thirteen years ago, she was married to Laurel Spann. There were four children, one of whom fell in an irrigation ditch and was drowned six years ago. The others survive her. They are Mildred, aged 12; Douglas, aged 10; and Anthony, aged 4. The children, as well as Mr. Spann, all had the Flu, but recovered, the quarantine being lifted yesterday.

Mrs. Spann, by her lovable disposition, made many friends who mourn her untimely death. The sympathy of the whole community goes out to the sorrowing relatives, especially the little children left motherless in the morning of their lives.
