

NATION COMBATS "FLU" SPREAD

Washington, Oct. 15.—The public health service announced last night it is mobilized for a national campaign against the nation-wide epidemic of Spanish influenza. Additional headquarters for state-wide efforts to control the disease will be established in co-operation with state and local health authorities at Baltimore, Md.; Columbus, Ohio; Richmond, Va., and Columbia, S. C.