

Quarantine Declared

In concert with action in all surrounding towns the local health and war head officers have established rules against assemblages in the effort to arrest spread of the influenza epidemic. All public meetings and private gatherings are prohibited until Nov. 4th next.