Dear Miss Taft,

President Thomas has asked me to tell you that she had a satisfactory interview with Miss Dent yesterday and told her that on your nomination she was appointed post-mistress of Lllysyfran. President Thomas wishes me to say that on account of Miss Dent's having cut the ropes of the fire doors last year in Denbigh she wanted to make quite sure that Miss Dent would not put acid in the mail bag or perform some other miserable practical joke.

If you can possibly get the time in the midst of the Influenza President Thomas would be glad if you would send her the names of your recommendations for post-mistresses and light lieutenants so that she may send them the usual notes of appointment.

Very sincerely yours,
