October 15, 1918.

Dear Mrs. Stone:-

President Thomas has asked me to tell you that she is strictly quarantined to the campus until after the influenza epidemic is entirely over, and that she can receive no visitors from the outside until the quarantine is lifted. When the epidemic is over, President Thomas will ask you to write to her again.

Very sincerely yours,

Secretary to the President.

Mrs. Matja Niessen Stone,
50 West 67th Street,
New York City.
