

DENVER SLAMS QUARANTINE ON AGAIN; 109 DEATHS IN 11 DAYS; PEOPLE MUST MASK

According to telephone news from Denver, that city has clamped the quarantine on again with redoubled force. A total of 109 deaths and 1,703 new cases since November 11th has caused widespread alarm and the people appearing in public places are forced by law to wear masks. Every kind of meeting indoor and outdoor is forbidden, churches, schools and all public gatherings are banned.