

SCHOOL OPENS ON MONDAY

Dr. Isalah Knott announced today that the schools will open Monday as planned, and will go ahead on regular schedule. That every precaution will be made to keep the rooms healthy and all children noticed to have the slightest colds will be sent home. There will be no chances taken. The teachers are here, ready for their work and the kiddies are rather glad that the quarantine is lifted.
