

Board of Health Orders Lid On.

The city Board of Health met Friday evening and as a result of their deliberations, all schools were closed, as well as churches, theatres and all public gatherings are prohibited until October 7. This was a precautionary measure against the spread of the epidemic which is causing such havoc in other places. The term of closing may be extended.