
Influenza Coming Back.

Influenza appears to be coming back to some degree in Vermont.

In Craftsbury, public assemblages have again been prohibited, Hardwick has just raised the ban a second time and there are reported to be many new cases in Burlington where there were ten deaths on Friday and Saturday.

Six of the seven regular members of the telephone exchange force in Morrisville are out with the influenza.
