

Papers of Mayor James Rolph

Used with permission.

From the collections of the California Historical Society, San Francisco, CA

Documents can only be used for educational and research purposes. If used for commercial purposes, please contact the above institution.

November 4th, 1918.

16-10

Rear-Admiral J.L. Jayne, U.S. Navy,
Commandant, Twelfth Naval District,
417 Sheldon Building,
San Francisco.

Dear Rear-Admiral Jayne:

I perhaps should have written earlier to reiterate my thanks for the prompt and earnest cooperation you gave the City of San Francisco in its effort to curb the influenza epidemic.

Your order requiring all personnel of the Twelfth Naval District, issued immediately following your call upon me, had a moral effect that helped our people to see the seriousness of the situation, and I appreciated your assistance very much indeed.

With kind personal regards, believe me,

Very sincerely yours,

Mayor.

This is a copy from the original manuscript held in the California Historical Society Library, San Francisco. It may be used for reference only, and no permission is here given for duplication in whole or in part.