San Francisco

November 18, 1918.

Honorable Mayor James Rolph,
City Hall,
San Francisco, Calif.

Honorable Sir:

I take the liberty at this time to extend my thanks to you for your considerate decision in reference to the ruling of Dr. Hassler, the City Health Officer, who endeavored to keep the Theatres of the Mission isolated and the Mission District isolated until the following week.

As Manager of the New Mission Theatre and representative of Kahn & Greenfield, I wish to extend my sincere thanks, and will state that the New Mission Theatre is at your disposal for any use that you may see fit and at any time.

Sincerely,

NEW MISSION THEATRE,

BY
