PASTEURIZED MILK AND SWEET CREAM

231 FRANKLIN STREET

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.

December 17th, 1918.

Dr. W. C. Hassler, Health Officer,
City and County of San Francisco,
1085 Mission St.,
San Francisco, Cal.

Dear Sir:-

I am in receipt of a check for supplying milk and cream to the Red Cross Hospital, which was so ably managed by your assistant Mr. C. M. Wollenberg.

As a slight token of my appreciation of your splendid and successful efforts in handling the terrible epidemic of Influenza in San Francisco and as I do not wish to profit by the misfortunes and sufferings of my fellow townsmen, I am enclosing herewith my check for $100.00, and will ask that you kindly place it where, in your judgement, it will do the most good.

Gratefully yours,

Geo. H. Pippy
Proprietor Columbia Dairy.
