

FLETCHER.

Frank Boozan will move to the C. W. Call farm November 1, and Mr. Call will move to the Jones place recently purchased of his son, D. J. Call. Perley Pilbin has moved to L. Richards' farm and will carry it on for the next year. Coyt Tinker has moved to the H. French farm which he recently purchased of E. T. Flanders.

Albro and Louis Clark were called here to the funeral of their sister, Mrs. David Shepley.

C. H. Corse is home for a short stay from Camp Devens.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Sherman, of Cambridge, were recent visitors at the home of H. E. Leach.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Leach were in Cambridge the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Patterson and son Mrs. Charles Cheesman and Mrs. John Prucey, all of Cambridge, were recent visitors at the home of F. A. Kezer.

John Fitzgerald is making some repairs to his buildings.

George Tedford has returned from a visit in Montpelier and Waterbury.

F. L. Leach has been on the mail route.

Mr. Allen of Fairfax, has moved into one of E. T. Flanders' tenement houses and is drawing wood for Bert Reynolds.

Mrs. John Miller has gone to Essex Junction to visit her people.

The last piece of permanent road work which has been lacking between Fletcher and Cambridge has been completed in fine shape by Road Commissioner Scott.