

FLETCHER.

Henry Coolin and Ralph Gillilan are home for the holidays from Camp Devens, Mass.

C. H. Corse has received his discharge at Camp Devens, Ayers, Mass., and is staying in Massachusetts where he and Mrs. Corse have positions.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Crosier, of Fairfax, were over-Christmas visitors of A. W. Gillilan.

There was a fine community Christmas tree at the church Christmas eve. A large crowd attended.

Fay Hull was in St. Albans December 26.

George Call Jr., of East Fairfield, was at home over Christmas.

J. Kenneth Bean, of Enosburg Falls, called upon friends here recently.

M. S. Langton, of Cambridge, is home once more. He has been ill and just recovered.

A. H. Hooper has the lumber nearly all cut on his pond lot.

Miss Lizzie King, of Fairfax, has been visiting Mrs. Gordon.

Mr. Suede, of Fairfax, has moved into S. N. Gibbs' house and Mr. Brewster into Scott's house.

Miss Edythe Coupor has finished her school on the river and gone to her home in St. Albans.

Coyt Tinker is drawing cream for the Brigham company to Cambridge Junction.

It looked at first like a "green" Christmas but snow came Christmas day.