

OUTDOOR SERVICES WERE HELD BY SEVERAL SAN FRANCISCO CHURCHES YESTERDAY UNDER THE RESTRICTIONS IMPOSED of Health. At the upper left Bishop William Ford Nichols of the Episcopal church is shown conducting service from the steps of the Divinity School. To the right is t seated on chairs in the garden which lies between the school and Grace Pro-Cathedral.

Scene at St. Mary's Cathedral yesterday morning when hundreds of worshipers attended the open-air mass held on the steps of the Cathedral at Van Ness avenue and O'Farrell street. An altar was erected in the vestibule of the edifice, just within the main entrance doors, and the throng of worshipers extended down the granite steps to the curb.
