

Three San Mateans Die From Influenza

SAN MATEO, October 23.—Influenza claimed three victims in San Mateo today. They were:

William J. Fleming, 44 years old, a printer employed by the H. S. Crocker Company in San Francisco, who is survived by a widow and three children

Mrs Naomi Huber, 38 years old, wife of George Huber, employed by a San Francisco firm

Squire J. Chamberlain 28 years old, a chauffeur, formerly employed by Major Henry Foster Dutton. He is survived by a widow, who also is very ill.
