

9 I. W. W. Defy Influenza Order And Are Arrested

Nine members of the I. W. W. who had been forbidden to give a banquet because of the prevalence of influenza, were arrested yesterday after the police received word that they had given the banquet, had cursed the American Government and burned an American flag which had been hanging on the wall. The affair was given in the Jack London Hall, 2137 Sutter street. When the police arrived they found men removing tables, chairs and kitchen utensils and other articles, which, they say, had been used at the spread.

Among the men arrested was Herman Smith, secretary of the San Francisco local of the I. W. W. Smith was arrested once before, with Daniel O'Connell, convicted of conspiracy to obstruct the selective service act.

Those taken into custody, besides Smith were John Galobich, Charles Wenrich, Charles H. Adams, William Lee, Sam Sheath, Lee Ellis, William Palmer and Nick Nikolinko.

Influenza Vaccine To Be Distributed Each Day by State

SACRAMENTO, December 21. (The) local distribution of doses of influenza vaccine in California since the outbreak of the epidemic according to reports received 11:10 today. The State Board of Health announced.

Reports received from Sacramento one of the best pillars in the State in which the epidemic vaccine reported, indicated the week had been passed there only three new cases were reported there in the last twenty days. Reports advised to the State Board asked.

One thousand doses of influenza vaccine will be distributed by the State tomorrow. It was announced, and the supply will be increased daily.