

FOUNDED 1865

C

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1918

DOCTORS STEMMING INFLUENZA SPREAD, SAYS

EPISODES CAUGHT BY A CHRONICLE PHOTOGRAPHER IN THE MIDST OF YESTERDAY'S RED CROSS FIGHT AGAINST INFLUENZA. At the (reading from left to right) three branches of the Red Cross service are disclosed in Dorothy Starr, motor girl; Mrs. Genevieve Murray of the case assignment department, and Mrs. Walsh, graduate nurse. The center picture shows an ambulance corps of Red Cross girls and sailor boy stretcher bearers, who (from left to right) are: Dewey Bullock, Bernard Gurnette and Robert Ferguson of the Yerba Buena Hospital corps; Private Zadel Ayers, Private Dorothy Starr and Private Marjorie Lewin. The picture to the right shows Police Ben Clancy remonstrating with a mask slacker.

